CORRECTIONS CHEERFULLY MADE WHEN ATTENTION IS CALLED TO ERRORS

Observations

It is not my intention of trying to pin a bouquet on ye old Kodger—I feel too modest, and besides it makes my face red to ballyhoo myself—But, a few years ago, I think it was one of the "smaller publications" that began the fight for postal delivery service, a hospital, an ordinance of zoning, and numerous other projects that have and have not come to pass. One, our postal delivery service, was taken up by members of the Lions club and other civic clubs and leaders—today it is a fact. Today I want to offer another, now!

Old Kodger has no fuss, and there's no earthly reason for "sour grapes" because others see it differently. My only reason has been explained—it would not be understood. It is my honest conviction that this sacred old day should never be allowed to become just another day of commercialism. Only enough to keep our visitors from becoming hungry or thirsty for food and water.

If we would advertise for commercial purposes, let's advertise Kentucky's biggest attraction—Kentucky Dam and the Lake; that here is a place for rest and recreation. If we would advertise this, why not raise a fund of several hundred dollars, invite feature writers, say, from St. Louis, Springfield, East St. Louis, Chicago, Indianapolis or Evansville, give them to their best for us?

A vacation such as this, free of charge, to a tired newspaperman would mean a lot to him. This could be done by a cameraman of some of the film news companies that specialize in news films for theatres. This would be an incentive and give us much publicity. Newspapers and magazines are always on the prowl for feature material. Perhaps it might be arranged for reduced rates at motels for such a proposition. The expenses should not be excessive if handled in the right manner.

Here, old Kodger thinks, is a simple fact that is being overlooked by us—a lot of people do not like to vacation on lakes and rivers because of insects. How many of us ever ask our visitors if they had any mosquito bites? If they noticed the absence of flies and mosquitoes. Let's call their attention to the fact that TVA has done a good job by spraying the lake area.

Why not have an active committee composed of representatives of civic clubs of the county for the purpose of raising the money for advertising purposes, investigate and see if such a plan would work with magazines, film companies and see if they would consider such a "treat on us". In April the L & N railroad magazine carried several pages of a description and pictures of Kentucky Lake. This magazine goes out to thousands of employees of that railroad. There are other railroads that have their own publications, factories and other business concerns likewise have others that are always looking for feature material.

The L & N magazine gave mostly information of the lake area in and around Paris, Tenn., but we can't blame them for doing that. It did carry some pictures of the Dam and other scenes along the Lake. We must remember there are millions of prospects; there are thousands who have not yet heard of Kentucky Dam and the Lake. A well arranged ad to them. This could be done by a committee (not a sitting committee where all good deeds die), but a committee that will function day in and day out to advertise one of the biggest attractions anywhere Kentucky Dam and Lake.

Let The Chips Fall

We had plenty of excitement down in our neighborhood last week. Of course it isn't at all unusual to see quite a stir around the residence of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. McClain with people in and out all the time but Monday of the past week brought an unusual upset in the daily routine. The doctor had quite a bit of difficulty keeping the "help" at their jobs. "Boots" the McClain's prize setter presented them with nine new additions to their kennel and it was quite a task to keep everyone from the doghouse watch—"Boots" mother her new family. (Note: Confidentially, the doctor couldn't resist slipping out occasionally to gaze upon the new arrivals himself.

Last Saturday this "Chip" had a chance to slip off and visit a few other weekly "grinders" to beg, borrow or snatch some help. After traveling from Benton to Calvert City and across two rivers and approximately 300 miles all total, we finally decided that Governor Clements could be called "Patches" Clements. With all the money at his disposal for highways and roads it still seems a favorite pastime of our Kentucky Governor to patch roads instead of building them. The road from Calvert has probably had more than enough money spent on it for patching to build three good highways but it still continues to be patched. Why doesn't someone Upstate realize this is an important road and try to do something besides patch.

Back on the subject of Doctors—Benton has two of the finest young Doctors of any town in Western Kentucky. Dr. Joe Miller and Dr. George McClain. Both have made a record unequalled, since coming to Benton to practice and every citizen of this county should be proud of them. It seems a shame that Benton, growing as it is cannot afford a nice hospital or clinic. People of this county spend thousands of dollars each year in hospitals in other towns. Of course we have sense enough to know that operation of a hospital is expensive but we do see them in towns not as large as Benton.

A lady whose name we graciously withhold, passed across the Tennessee river below the dam not long ago and being a bit near-sighted, could not see that the fishermen on the banks were fishermen, remarked, "look at the fence posts the TVA has erected along the banks." We agree madam, because it looked that way to us last Saturday when we happened to pass the same way.

A lot of discussion, pro and con, about Joe Vick's catch on Kentucky Lake of a "Muskie" seems to be making the rounds. Some say it is and some say it "ain't" but if I could catch anything in the fish line that weighed nearly four pounds would be satisfied.

I see this week where business TYCOON Shelby McCallum and Homer Solomon have formed a partnership in the insurance business. Both young men and well liked here and should do well selling their new product.

OUR UNCLE SAMUEL CAN DO THE JOB RIGHT—THE FIRST TIME...

Our Uncle Sam's Post Office Department gets lots of complaints, and we'd guess very few complaints, but here's one for the benefit of his coat.

Last week one of the heating elements on one of our type setting machines burned out. This placed us in a predicament no "little paper" ought to be in, especially when in a rush. At 11:15 A. M. Friday a hurried phone call was sent to the supply department several hundred miles away and with a request that the part be sent by air mail parcel post. "Air Mail," the order department man said, "why that will cost you plenty." "Ship it," he was instructed. The next day at 2:00 P. M., the part was in the local Post Office, and by the courtesy of John T. Jones, Saturday afternoon we got the part and had the machine in operation and ready for service. The air mail cost was $1.20.

Podunk Palaver

"Uncle" Phel Freely says: "Nearly everybody stands up when they hear the National Anthem, fall down if they try to sing it."

Nearly everyone I know trusts in God—Now what is needed is to go back to where we can trust in each other.

Aunt Frelle Squat thinks it takes plenty of sense in order to get by without knowing anything.

A fellow may lose all of his earthly possessions—but he will still have his experience.

There will be a shindig at the Podunk school house Saturday night. Everybody invited, but bring your own liquor.

Uncle Ciel Closely is having a sale next week—all buggy, whips and lap robes to go at one-half price.

There isn't a chance of anyone sitting on the lap of Slim Gee—when he sits down, stomach blocks say sit down on him.

The thing that keeps a lot of men broke, is not the wolf at the door but that mink in the window.

A Plan For The Future

Or A

Plan for the Present

THE BALDWIN is a snazzy 4-room home. It features plenty of storage space and a convenient central hall which connects all of the rooms as well as the front entrance vestibule. Among the ten closets included in this storage-conscious home are coat closets in each entrance vestibule, storage closets linen and general closets in the hall and wardrobes in each of the two bedrooms.

For extra building economy, the kitchen is located next to the bathroom, and the laundry is directly beneath it. This arrangement reduces the cost of plumbing installation. Dining space is situated next to the window in the kitchen, assuring light and air. Cabinets are arranged on the opposite wall. The kitchen also has a pot and pan closet and a broom closet.

Other desirable features in this small home are the roomy side vestibule with closet; the wall space in the living room; the recessed bath tub and spacious front porch.

The dimensions of the main body of the house are 32 feet by 24 feet. There is a total area of only 885 square feet, without the porch, and 16,815 cubic feet.

We hope we can be of service to you on plans for a New Home. We Invite you to discuss your plans with us.

We'd like nothing better than to discard the old "soap box" and write only about the sunny side of the outdoors—the beautiful days ahead on a trout stream or the relaxing moments in a bass lake.

Still a recent announcement about forest fires brings up a point that needs stressing. We can enjoy the outdoors to the fullest; yet we must be good woodmen to avoid the costly fires that annually reap such a great toll of wildlife.

The most hazardous forest fire season since 1933 is more than a remote possibility this year," says J. A. Mitchell, veteran fire research expert for the U. S. Forest Service.

This forecast is for the great lakes region where Mitchell is headquartered. It is believed that critical fires in this region are following an eight or nine year cycle and that the year this opinion critical fires in Michigan were in 1925, 1933 and 1941. This is the year at the top of the cycle.

Whether or not a similar cycle exists in other parts of the United States is not known. Actually, it makes little difference, for almost every year can be considered critical, and whether the losses are only a few acres or a million, wildlife suffers when its habitat goes up in smoke.

The most serious danger period for fires is in the spring and in the fall. Before vegetation turns green in the spring, it burns easily when it is brown and dry in the fall, fires start quickly.

Forest fires most often are the result of carelessness, with a high percentage of them started by man. But with a little thought and cooperation they can be avoided.

So, brother Sportsmen, let's add to our list of outdoor sports the "wooded" habit of the game by being sure that camp fires are out, that matches are

Highway Officials Outline Program For Work In State At Paducah Meeting

Plans for improving maintenance operations on Kentucky highways, in line with proposals recently by Highway Commissioner John A. Keen, were discussed in Paducah May 11 with supervisory personnel of District No. 1.

Maintenance Director M. E. Johnson, Equipment Director W. A. Tinscher and District Engineer Les Puryear outlined methods of cutting maintenance costs in the field and providing a more efficient maintenance program.

Bo. 3 these aims were strongly emphasized in a recent speech delivered by Commissioner Keen at Frankfort. A recording of the entire was played at the meeting.

"The record of the Commissioner's statement is being presented to the supervisory personnel of every district because we want you to know exactly how he feels about your job," Mr. Johnson said. "This business of maintaining Kentucky's highways is big business."

Mr. Keen means business, supervisory personnel involved in shabby maintenance will get no sympathy in the central office from anyone. Poor maintenance is not alone a poor service to the public but is a waste of public funds.

"Every necessary piece of equipment will be provided for every operation," Mr. Tinscher assured the group. "What we do not want, however, is idle equipment. If a bulldozer or a loader is needed in an adjacent county and is not being used where it is stored, we want that piece of equipment placed in operation where it is needed. It is neither economy nor good business to have idle equipment."

bulletin said, to see the service inaugurated within 15 to 30 days.

The Department of Aeronautics and the Department of Conservation feel that all of these services are badly needed in order that Kentucky Dam State Park may be fully utilized by the flying public.

The park airport, located below the dam on the Caldwell county side of the Tennessee river, has been called the best grass airfield in the state. It was used chiefly by TVA planes during construction of Kentucky Dam.

..FABULOUS FARM MARKETINGS!

During 1948 The South's cash farm income totaled more than $9,643,000,000

No longer putting all its eggs in one basket, the new South is gathering wealth from a great variety of agricultural products. From the broad fields and rich earth of the Southland came more than $9,643,000,000 in crops and livestock during 1948. Approximately one-third of the farm cash income of the whole United States, this impressive figure denotes the South's increasing importance in the nation's economy. But farm income is just one source of the South's mighty income—its resources are vast. That is why business and industry are heading South—because the old South is a new South today... with unlimited opportunities for growth and development.

the NC&STL... going forward with the Southland...

Rail transportation has played a vital role in the growth of the South. Carrying the vast output of agriculture and industry to the four corners of America... bringing in vital supplies, it helps keep the wheels of business and industry turning. For more than a hundred years the NC&STL has been building, changing and improving its rail service to keep abreast—and ahead—of the South's needs. As a vital part of the South's transportation system, it looks forward to sharing in and contributing to the future growth of the great new South.

Thousands Expected For Pennsalt Plant To Begin Operation Soon

The first operating phases of Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company's new fluorine chemical plant at Calvert City will begin next month, it was announced today by George B. Beitzel, company president.

Under construction for approximately a year, the new $1,000,000 Calvert City Works plant is devoted to the production of sulfuric and hydrofluoric acid. It will operate 24 hours a day. Plans call for future expansion that is expected to make the plant one of the largest in the Pennsalt chain that now extends from Pennsylvania to Washington and from Michigan to Texas, Beitzel said. Employing the latest developments in safety and engineering design and including single and multi-story buildings, the new plant will employ initially approximately 50 people from the Calvert City area.

As the demand for fluorine chemicals grows, the plant will be enlarged and personnel increased, according to Beitzel. The plant occupies approximately 10 acres of a 500-acre tract owned by Pennsalt. It is located north of Calvert City, between Paducah and the TVA Kentucky Dam at Gilbertsville, from which electric power is received.

Water necessary for the manufacture of the acids will be pumped from the Tennessee River, 80 yards from the plant. The river also will provide economical transportation facilities. Trucks of the Illinois Central Railroad, which service the plant will carry tank cars to the finished products.

Pennsalt has other plants located at Matrona, Easton and Lawrence, Pa.; Wyanet, Mich.; Portland, Ore.; Tacoma, Wash.; and Bryan, Texas.
